THE WOMAN SUFFRAGE PARTY

ITS AIM

THE ENROLLMENT OF 100,000 MEMBERS THIS YEAR
AND THE ATTAINMENT OF WOMAN SUFFRAGE IN THE STATE OF NEW YORK WITHIN FIVE YEARS

THE SECOND CITY CONVENTION.

Plans for the City Convention of the Woman Suffrage Party are going forward satisfactorily. The City Committee has had two meetings since the last issue of THE VOTER, to appoint committees, arrange business details, etc. Each Assembly District will be entitled to 18 delegates in the City Convention and these delegations will be designated by markers so that spectators may see just how many of the Assembly Districts are organized and represented. Only bona fide delegates will be seated. Some seats will be reserved for alternates. The boxes are for sale at $5 and $10 for the second tier and first tier, respectively. Mrs. Clarence Mackay was the purchaser of the first box and the others are selling readily. Applications for boxes should be sent to Miss Hay at the Party Headquarters.

A report of Party funds, contributed and expended, will be made, pledges asked for and a collection taken. A summary of the year's work will be embodied in the address of the Chairman. A platform will be presented for adoption, City and Borough officers elected.

The list of Honorary Vice-Presidents will comprise the names of some of the most distinguished men and women of the City. It is practically certain that Hon. Philip Snowden, M. P., and Mrs. Snowden will both be speakers at the Convention. Members of the Party are urged to bear the date in mind—October 28.

THE PARTY PLAN.

"Just what is the Woman Suffrage Party plan of organization?" "How is the Woman Suffrage Party organized?" "How does the Party differ from other Woman Suffrage organizations?" "How can your plan be applied in other cities?" These are a few of the questions that are daily asked at Headquarters by visitors, in person, or through letters. Last week there were callers from California, Missouri, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania—all on the same quest. To answer these many inquiries it has been decided to issue a leaflet which shall set forth, as briefly as possible, the exact method employed in organizing the Woman Suffrage Party of New York City, together with a summary of the first year's achievements. Though less than a year has elapsed since our first City Convention was held, and only nine months since actual enrollment in the Party began, the results have justified the methods, and we have no hesitation in recommending this form of organization to all who would see the political enfranchisement of women accomplished within this generation. The day of agitation and education has not yet been entirely superseded by the day of organization, but the time has come when agitation and education on our question can be made to bear directly on organization. Our efforts need no longer be unrelated, scattering and ineffectual. There is a way to make every stroke count on the building of the new structure, and the Woman Suffrage Party plan points the way. Applications for the leaflet giving all necessary information should be addressed to the Party at Headquarters, 212 Metropolitan Tower.

JURYWOMEN! WHY NOT?

The Man's Rights Number of LIFE (September 15) was splendid propaganda for our cause. The publishers have generously loaned the original drawings of the cover page and of the inside double page illustration to the Woman Suffrage Party for use in our suffrage stereoptican.

The latter picture—"When Women Vote," showing a jury of eleven men and one woman about to be locked up for the night recalled to Mrs. Catt an interesting story of an actual occurrence of this kind. It happened a good many years ago in Wyoming. A young man was on trial for his life, the charge being murder. The woman juror was for acquittal. The evidence was entirely circumstantial and had convinced her that the prisoner ought to be set free. The eleven men jurors were for conviction. When they were locked in the jury room the men asked the woman if she objected to their smoking. She replied that she certainly did not. As time dragged they asked if she had any objection to their sending out for beer. She answered that she expected no special consideration of any kind, that they were to do as they liked quite regardless of her presence. But she made them talk about the case. She discussed the evidence with each of those men with the result that when morning came, the jury brought in a unanimous verdict for acquittal.

Ten years later the defendant in that trial journeyed from Montana to Cheyenne to pay a visit to that woman juror, to give an account of himself, to prove to her that he had "made good" and to thank her for having been instrumental in giving him his chance.

A great many worse things are happening to women every hour of every day, even here in New York where women do not vote, than serving on juries or than being locked up in a jury room under the protection of eleven male fellow citizens.

Make the City Convention, October 28, the largest and best meeting possible. Every member of the Woman Suffrage Party can help.

ARE YOU ENROLLED?

While the enrollment of members in the Woman Suffrage Party is progressing steadily, it is not being pushed as rapidly or as effectively as it might be. Some of our own active workers fail to enroll until their attention is directed to this oversight. Others seem to be under the misapprehension that membership in other suffrage clubs precludes membership in the Party. Nothing could be farther from the truth.

The Woman Suffrage Party is "a union for political work of existing equal suffrage organizations in the City of New York," so members of other associations are pre-eminently qualified for membership. It affords a place in the suffrage organization too for that vast number of sympathizers who have never been counted in our membership anywhere, the men and women who simply "believe." Every one of these ought to be enrolled in the Party. If every woman member would see to it that the men of her family are enrolled (provided they are in sympathy) our membership would be tremendously augmented. If every man member would secure just one enrollment another great gain would have been made. The enrollment slip plainly states that membership in the Party does not conflict with existing political affiliations.

On page 9 of this issue of The VOTER you will find a fac-simile of our official enrollment blank. Get a signature for it, cut it out and mail or bring it to Headquarters.

LET US REPORT AT LEAST FIVE HUNDRED NEW MEMBERS SECURED IN THIS WAY IN THE NOVEMBER VOTER!

A FEW FACTS.

The only paid workers in the Woman Suffrage Party are an office secretary and a stenographer. The office secretary has charge of the Headquarters and keeps a general oversight of the many details connected with the work. Occasionally it is necessary to supply extra stenographic help. Temporarily, Elizabeth J. Hauser, an experienced woman suffrage worker, is assisting at Headquarters, but her services are a personal contribution from Mrs. Catt to the Party. When one considers the tremendous correspondence, the printing and distributing of literature, the bookkeeping, the cataloguing of the membership, the editing and mailing of the Woman Voter—all of which are part of the regular routine—one readily realizes that this work alone might call for an office force twice as large. The resources of the treasury forbid any extra expenditures in this direction, however.

The work for the Party is largely volunteer work. Some of the Borough Chairmen and Assembly District Leaders give practically all their time to it. Most of them contribute money too. Some of them earn money, in various ways, in order to add to their contributions. Sacrifices are made by these noble women every day of which no one but themselves will ever know. The earnestness, the devotion, the resourcefulness of some of "the least of these" is a beautiful lesson in social service.

Speaking of the untiring and never ceasing efforts of one of the members of the Party an admirer remarked, "I believe Miss ——— would wade through blood for the cause."

"She would," solemnly rejoined the person addressed, "but it would be her own blood."

Persons capable of self-sacrifice for the sake of principle do not call for commiseration. Rather are they to be envied. But this "Women's War" is being fought not for any special class or group, not for all women alone even, but for the whole race—for the man, the woman and the child; and it is not fair nor worthy that the few be left to bear the brunt of all the battles. Many battles there will be before victory perches on our banners, and there is something for everyone to do in this fight. Not all may go to the front, but those who cannot serve as soldiers may do their part by furnishing the sinews of war. Do not hesitate to send a contribution, however small. Every little helps, and whether you give much or little you may be assured that every dollar will be wisely and economically expended.

Fill out the subscription blank to our Campaign Fund on Page 9, and mail it to-day.

Do not forget the City Convention at Carnegie Hall, October 28. All delegates should be in their seats at 7:45 p. m. Convention will be called to order at 8 p. m.

HEARINGS AT STATE CONVENTIONS

Mrs. Ella Hawley Crossett, Mr. Max Eastman, Miss Mary G. Hay, Miss Mary Wood, Mrs. Robert H. Elder and Mrs. Grace B. Wolterbeek composed the delegation to the Republican Convention at Saratoga, Mrs. Crossett representing the State Association, Mr. Eastman, the Men's League and the four last named ladies the Woman Suffrage Party. Mrs. Elder and Mrs. Wolterbeek made it their special duty to interview every Kings County delegate, while Miss Hay and Miss Wood, assisted by other friends whom they found at Saratoga, directed their efforts to New York County delegates. On Tuesday morning (September 27) copies of the Woman Suffrage Party's appeal were placed just over the tally sheet on the backs of the delegates' seats. The appeal read as follows:

To the Platform Committee and Delegates of the Republican Convention, Saratoga, September 27 and 28.

Gentlemen:

The Woman Suffrage Party of Greater New York, organized less than a year ago and already numbering more than 20,000 members, respectfully requests you to incorporate the following resolution in your platform:

Resolved, That we favor the submission to the voters of the State of a constitutional amendment guaranteeing suffrage to the women of New York.

We do not ask you to endorse woman suffrage per se; we do ask you to recognize the popular demand for a referendum upon this question. The founders of the Constitution clearly left the extension of suffrage to the voters of the State, and not to the Legislature. Yet, the Legislature has repeatedly refused to submit such an amendment, and waits for an expression in the party platforms.

To withhold such submission is arbitrary; to grant it is democratic. Our plea is for a Square Deal.

This was signed by the City officers and the Borough Chairmen.

From the excellent seats which the Woman Suffrage Party representatives occupied in the gallery, through the courtesy of Colonel Gruber, they were able to watch the delegates as they took up the yellow dodgers. Many of the men perused them carefully, some seemed to be discussing them with their neighbors, and not a few put them in their pockets after they had read them. The circular, prepared by the State Association, was distributed in a similar manner the next day. Late Tuesday night a hearing was granted before the Platform Committee, Mrs. Crossett introducing the speakers. Though her remarks were the briefest, Mrs. Wolterbeek probably made the most impression on the members of the Committee. She simply said, "Gentlemen, I have been an interested spectator at this remarkable Convention all day, but I cannot describe to you my feeling of humiliation when I contrast my position to-day with that I occupied when a few years ago I attended the State Republican Convention of Idaho as a voting delegate."

The Committee took no action upon the request of the petitioners, but they were later assured that if it had not been for the contest on the direct primary plank the result might have been different. There is always an "If," but eventually the last IF will be overcome. The Party's representatives received many courtesies from newspaper men and delegates.

Mrs. Emma B. Sweet took charge of the printed appeal to the delegates to the State Democratic Convention at Rochester. This appeal read like the appeal to the Republicans, except that it substituted George William Curtis's honored phrase "Fair Play" for Col. Roosevelt's "Square Deal" in the closing sentence. The circulars were placed in the hands of all the delegates and, as at Saratoga, the Platform Committee granted a hearing. Mrs. Crossett spoke for the State, Mr. Eastman for the Men's League, and Mrs. Mary T. L. Gannett for the Woman Suffrage Party. No vote was taken by the Committee, but courteous attention was accorded the speakers.

At this writing the position on our question of the nominees for Governor, Mr. Stimson and Mr. Dix, respectively, have not been ascertained. We hope to be able to report on this in the next VOTER.

VOLUNTEERS WANTED

Friends who are willing to act as pages, to sell and distribute literature or to do any of the many things which ought to be done at a large public meeting are invited to volunteer for service for the City Convention at Carnegie Hall, October 28. Those willing to assist will please send their name to Headquarters. Telephone, 66 Gramercy.

When you go to a shop, hotel, restaurant, or business office of any kind because you have seen the advertisement of it in the WOMAN VOTER, don't neglect to mention that fact.

REPORT OF WORK AT ASSEMBLY DISTRICT CONVENTIONS

In the September Voter there appeared the Appeal of the Woman Suffrage Party to the delegates of the Assembly District Conventions. Nearly two thousand of these Appeals were distributed at Conventions throughout Greater New York. Though our working forces were badly handicapped by the absence of many of the Assembly District Leaders who had not yet returned to the city from their summer vacations, and though this was the first time that such work had been attempted, serious efforts to secure hearings were made in forty-four of these Conventions. Not all were successful. In some a hearing was denied but permission given to distribute the circulars. In others, delegates volunteered to distribute the circulars, and in some instances the Chairman or Secretary of the Convention read the Appeal. In thirty-one of the Conventions hearings were granted or the appeals were distributed.

In the 11th Assembly District Republican (Brooklyn) Senator Travis, the Leader, who has been frankly opposed to the whole movement, granted a hearing and received the women with the greatest cordiality. As a balance for this the Republican Leader of the 18th (Brooklyn) said he didn't know what the women wanted, he didn't care, and it didn't matter, for they couldn't have it anyway. In the 10th Democratic (Brooklyn) not only was a hearing granted but the women were invited to come to the next regular meeting of the Club which will be "Ladies' Night." In the 2nd Democratic (Brooklyn) they were likewise invited to come again.

In Manhattan nine Republican Conventions granted hearings and one, the 17th, instructed its delegates to Saratoga to vote in favor of submission provided such a plank was presented in the platform. Col. Abraham Gruber, the leader in this District, in introducing the Woman Suffrage Party representative, declared himself not in favor of submission only, but of the whole proposition. Seven Democratic Conventions granted hearings, and in the 27th a hearing was refused but the Convention instructed its delegates in accordance with our request. In the 32nd Democratic the reception of the woman speaker amounted almost to an ovation. At the Democratic Convention in the 8th the women were told that it would be "against the law" to admit them, but Big Tim Sullivan came out and spoke to them and assured them that 'he always had voted for the ladies and always would."

An exact record of this work in each District is on file at Headquarters but a more extended account cannot be given here because there is so much other political work to report in this issue.

PAGEANT POSTPONED

The general committee in charge of arrangements for the Parade and Mass Meeting, scheduled for October 29, met at Woman Suffrage Party Headquarters, September 2, and voted to postpone the pageant until spring. It was stated that vigorous organization work is going forward "up State" and that by spring a very much better showing can be made by the societies outside of greater New York.

The Woman Suffrage Party had gone so far with its arrangements for the pageant as to have appointed a grand marshal, a Parade Committee and a Committee on Banners. In a number of Assembly Districts, the leaders had commenced to organize their marching forces and all the arrangements were going forward nicely. The decision to postpone the parade, however, leaves our Party workers free to devote themselves more energetically to the political work which is just now making so many demands upon them, to organization work and to the various Conventions of our own Party—Assembly District, Borough and City.

CURIOSITIES OF CAMPAIGN WORK

(Reported by a District Leader.)

What politicians did not know:

Tammany Hall did not know the names or addresses of the delegates to the State Convention from the 2d Assembly District. Did not know the whereabouts of Mr. A. E. Smith, who was said to have the lists in his pockets. Downtown Tammany Hall did not know the address of Mr. Refram, one of its delegates.

Judge Hoyer's house did not know what court he was sitting in.

Eighth Assembly District Tammany Club, when asked for its delegates' names, gave with great show of zeal, the names of three men, none of whom were really their delegates, and one of whom was sent from the 10th. Another of these three when found forgot his own identity, saying that himself had just gone to the barber's.

A rising young politician did not know that women were voting in any part of the world.

REPUBLICAN SENATORIAL CONVENTIONS

Republican Senatorial District Conventions (11th to 22nd) were called for Friday evening, September 30. The following request, signed by the city officers and Borough Chairmen of the Woman Suffrage Party, was distributed in as many of these Conventions as possible:

To the Senatorial Nominating Conventions of Greater New York:

The Woman Suffrage Party, organized in the sixty-three Assembly Districts of this city and numbering more than 20,000 members, hereby appeals to you to nominate a man for State Senator who is favorable to the submission to popular vote of a constitutional amendment enfranchising women. We do not ask that your candidate be necessarily an advocate of woman suffrage, but we do ask that he shall be fair-minded enough to stand for a referendum on the question.

To withhold such submission, as the Legislature has repeatedly done, is to arbitrarily usurp authority which clearly belongs to the electorate. Can not the voters of the State be trusted to express themselves on this measure?

The 11th Senatorial District Convention received a deputation headed by Miss L. L. Dock with marked courtesy and permitted the distribution of the circular. No nomination was made and the Convention adjourned to October 13th.

The Convention in the 12th adjourned to meet at the call of the Chairman.

In the 13th District Miss Florence M. King was accorded a hearing and her address was received with every indication of interest. Alexander Lindsay, the nominee, admitted the reasonableness of Miss King's request, but preferred not to commit himself until he had studied the question, which he said was a new one to him.

The 14th, 15th and 16th adjourned to meet October 12, 10 and 7 respectively. but in the 16th Miss Alice Perez and a representative from Headquarters were given a hearing and distributed literature.

In the 17th, George B. Agnew, who is opposed to woman suffrage, was renominated. In the 18th, Alexander Brough, and in the 19th, Josiah T. Whitcomb, both of whom are in favor of submission, were renominated.

In the 20th, the Convention adjourned to meet October 8, but at the close of the business session Dr. Anna Freedman, Miss Nettie Podell and Miss Mary Donnelly addressed the meeting, were enthusiastically received, and cordially invited to come back next Saturday night.

In the 21st and 22nd the Conventions adjourned to meet October 11th.

NEWS AND NOTES

A member of the Woman Suffrage Party, Mrs. Florence Woolston, was the prize winner in the contest of Woman's Era (New Orleans) for the best paper on Civics. Mrs. Woolston's paper is published in the October Woman's Era.

A correspondent suggests that it should be made very clear that women who are interested or who desire to become educated on the subject of suffrage are welcome at meetings even if they are not members. She says, "I find so many women who are anxious to learn more on the subject, but they are timid about going into a meeting alone, as they fear they might not be welcome." The meetings of the Woman Suffrage Party are designed expressly to reach non-members, and not women only, but men, too, are always welcome, whether in favor, indifferent or opposed.

Do you read the report of the Treasurer in each issue of the VOTER? You ought to!

The 16th and 18th Assembly Districts of Brooklyn held their respective Conventions the evening of September 29. In the former, Mrs. Grace Wolterbeek was unanimously re-elected Leader, Mrs. Robert H. Elder was endorsed for Borough Chairman, and Mrs. Wolterbeek for Vice-Chairman. The present City Committee was endorsed and delegates and alternates were elected to the Borough and City Conventions. In the 18th, Mrs. Oreola W. Haskell was elected Leader to succeed Mrs. Elizabeth L. Osborne, and Mrs. M. E. Wright was elected Vice-Chairman of the District. Delegates to both Borough and City Conventions were elected. Under Mrs. Osborne's leadership this District has increased its enrollment from 20 to nearly 200 members.

An open air meeting was held at the corner of 40th Street and Thirteenth Avenue, Brooklyn, September 30, under the auspices of the 16th Assembly District. Mrs. Wolterbeek and Mrs. Dr. Syrken were the speakers. Enrollments were taken and literature distributed.

Miss Edith Whitmore will read from her new play, "The Suffragette Mother," a comedy, not an argument, for the benefit of the Woman Suffrage Party, to clubs or organizations desiring propaganda work or wishing to raise funds for suffrage. Address E. M. Whitmore, care WOMAN VOTER, 1 Madison Avenue, New York City.

The first fall meeting of the 34th Assembly District was held at the home of its leader, Mrs. Isabella S. Baker, 968 East 167th Street, September 30.

The following ladies have been appointed parliamentarians for the Assembly District Conventions, and anyone of them may be called upon to assist in conducting elections provided the Assembly District Leader desires such assistance: Mrs. Helen Hoy-Greeley, 2 Rector Street; Mrs. Cornelia K. Hood, 20 Sidney Place, Brooklyn; Mrs. A. C. Fiske, 1567 Wilkins Avenue; Miss Anne Rhodes, 365 West End Avenue; Mrs. Cora P. Hamilton, 36 Park Avenue, Jamaica, L. I.

An unusually large and enthusiastic outdoor meeting was held at the corner of Union and Columbia Streets, Brooklyn, the evening of September 27, under the auspices of the Third Assembly District. Miss Grace A. Raymond presided, Miss Bertha Ryshpan and Miss Amy Wren being the speakers. Over forty enrollments were secured. Mrs. Sarah Meyer has done excellent work in this District, and a working club will soon be organized there.

An open air meeting was held at the corner of First Avenue and 35th Street, September 22d, in response to an appeal from a number of East Side mothers, the object of which was to express gratitude to the Hon. Nathan Straus for his Pasteurized milk philanthropy and to beg him to reconsider his decision to close the milk station. Miss Mary Donnelly had charge of the meeting. Forty-one enrollments were taken and the next day the telephone at Headquarters was kept busy by women of the neighborhood who wished to express their appreciation of the Party's interest in their welfare. "The meeting is making suffragists of the women down here," said one of those who called up.

After an open air meeting in Brooklyn the other night Miss Amy Wren and Miss Sarah Stephenson found Senator Thos. H. Cullen on the outskirts of the crowd and "interviewed" him. The Senator was polite and cordial but non-committal.

This is the way one of the most efficient of Assembly District Leaders reported Friday, September 30: "A delegation visited the Republican Senatorial Convention of the ——— District this evening, and were received with almost embarrassing demonstrations of polite interest. No promise, however, was given. We put in our plea, distributed our circulars and left. I think they regard it as a delightfully novel sort of half-dangerous animal that may do all kinds of unexpected things."

Dr. E. Helen Knight, leader of the 31st Assembly District, will be "At Home" to her Captains every Monday evening, from 8 p. m. to 9 p. m., until further notice.

Mrs. Penfield announces that her Parliamentary Law classes instead of being held at the Ansonia (see Page 7, September VOTER), will be held at 104 Madison Avenue, corner 29th Street, Mrs. J. S. Barker having graciously offered her house for the classes, which will meet at 11 a. m. sharp, every Tuesday, from now until December 13. Address applications to Mrs. W. W. Penfield, 730 E. 242nd Street.

The midsummer festival on the pavilion of the Hotel St. George in Brooklyn was erroneously credited to Mrs. Wolterbeek's District in the September VOTER. This festival was held under the auspices of the First Assembly District of Brooklyn, of which Mrs. Robert H. Elder is Chairman, and was one of the most successful of summer meetings.

All the women of Norway are voting for the first time in the municipal elections now being held, the law for universal municipal suffrage having been passed last winter.

Expert Hair Coloring

¶In coloring hair few persons realize that the quality and condition of hair govern the color, and perfect satisfaction only can be assured when sound judgment and experience are at your service. An interview with Miss Bertha will convince you that her 18 years' experience enables her to color hair with a natural result.
